Historic Hastings Photo Competition at the LeDuc Historic Estate

Dear Photographer,

Entries are now being taken for the Historic Hastings Photo Competition. The competition is open to both amateur and professional photographers. Winning photographs will be featured on postcards created for the Dakota County Historical Society for use and sale at the LeDuc Historic Estate and Lawshe Memorial Museum. The deadline for entries is Thursday, September 30, 2010.

Purpose: Create a line of limited edition postcards that capture the beauty of the LeDuc Historic Estate and Historic Hastings.

Themes/Categories: There are five categories for the competition; a single image from each category will be selected to be made into a post card.

- The exterior of the LeDuc House
- A collage of the outbuildings at LeDuc that includes the chickens
- The Vermillion Falls
- A collage of Historic Hastings including City Hall, Second Street & some historic homes
- Fashbender Clinic (Frank Lloyd Wright design)

Prizes: In addition to having a post card made, the first place photographer in each category will receive a prize package valued at more than $90, including a copy of Picturing the Past: Events that Shaped Dakota County in the Twentieth Century and a Family membership to the Society. Photographers will also be recognized in the history magazine Over the Years and winners will be announced to local media.

Submission: Please see the attached submission form for full specifications or go to the Society's website at www.dakotahistory.org. Photos should be sent electronically to Maggie Langenfeld @ margaretlangenfeld@co.dakota.mn.us.

Copyright: The artist retains the copyright on all submitted work. By submitting an entry, the artist agrees that DCHS may use the images to promote the competition. Artists of winning entries agree to grant DCHS non-exclusive rights to use the image for promotional purposes and the production of postcards that will be sold by DCHS.

Sincerely,

Maggie Langenfeld, Senior Guide & Chad Roberts, Executive Director
