

Albin M. Hall

Albin Hall was born on September 9th, 1895, to Oscar and Augusta Hall in Saint Paul, Minnesota. Both of his parents had been born in Sweden. Albin was one of four children. By the time of the WWI draft, he was working as a grocery store clerk and living in South Park, South Saint Paul, Minnesota. Albin registered for the draft on June 5th, 1917.

On February 26th, 1918, Albin enlisted into the Army's 46th Company 20th Engineers and served in France as a Private First Class. On June 23rd, 1919, Albin sailed home from Brest, France, on the USS Rhode Island. He was discharged from the military on July 12th, 1919.

After his service in the Army, Albin moved back to his parent's house in South Saint Paul and worked as an assistant buyer for wholesale cutlery. Sometime between the 1930 and 1940 US Census, Albin married Regina and had two daughters, Kathleen and Virginia. At the time of the 1940 US Census, Albin was working for Marvy Beauty Supplies on Grand Avenue in Saint Paul, Minnesota. Albin died on September 15th, 1976, at the age of 81, and is buried in Ramsey County, Minnesota.
